IIFL Fund - IIFL India Equity Opportunities Fund, Class D USD - LU1820744206

a sub-fund of IIFL FUND, this sub-fund is managed by MDO Management Company S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

Objectives

The aim of the sub-fund is to grow the value of your investment over the long term.

Investment policy

It seeks to do this by investing in stocks and related securities, mainly in India. These can be shares of Indian companies or other companies whose growth is expected to come mostly from Indian business. It intends to invest in about 20-30 stocks at any time, covering a variety of industries. It may also invest in other investment funds that have a similar objective to and are not significantly riskier than the sub-fund. It may also use futures and options, but only to help manage the portfolio efficiently.

The sub-fund is actively managed and uses the MSCI India Index as benchmark for performance comparison reason only. The Investment Manager may use its discretion to invest in companies or sectors not included in the Benchmark in order to take advantage of specific investment opportunities. This means that the deviation of the sub-fund to the MSCI India Index benchmark may be significant.

The investor may subscribe, convert and redeem shares on each bank business day in Luxembourg, India and Singapore.

Income of this share class is reinvested (accumulated).

Recommendation

The sub-fund may be most suitable for investors with a long-term horizon.

Risk and reward profile

What does this synthetic indicator mean?

- The calculation of the risk indicator is based on estimated and historical data which may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the sub-fund.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged. The sub-fund's risk indicator may shift over time.
- The lowest category of the risk indicator does not mean a risk-free investment.
- The sub-fund IIFL Fund - IIFL India Equity Opportunities Fund is classified in category 6 because of its investments in Indian companies.
- Your initial investment does not benefit from any guarantee or protection.

Which risks are not included in this synthetic indicator?

- The value of equity securities may go down as well as up in response to the performance of individual companies and general market conditions.

- Movements in currency exchange rates can adversely affect the return of your investment.
- The sub-fund's exposure to a single country, which may be subject to particular political and economic risks, may cause the sub-fund to be more volatile than broadly diversified funds.
- Emerging markets may be subject to increased risks, including less developed custody, legal regulation and settlement practices, greater economic and political instability, higher volatility and lower liquidity than non-emerging market securities.
- Using derivatives can involve a higher level of risk. A small movement in the price of an underlying investment may result in a disproportionately large movement in the price of the derivative instrument.
- It might be that an organization with which the fund trades assets or derivatives may be unable to fulfil its obligations, which could cause losses to the sub-fund.
- Failure or deficient processes, systems and controls, human error or catastrophic events may lead to important losses.

Full information on the risks applicable to the sub-fund is detailed in the prospectus.

Charges
